Other things to see and do in Indianapolis:

The city has a lot to offer, especially if you arrive before or stay after the reunion. These sites could be visited before, after (or even during) the reunion. (You will have to negotiate the hotel rate if arriving before or staying after the reunion.) Below are just 3 of many examples:

1) Tour the "Indianapolis Beer Mile." A first class tour for beer enthusiasts includes a most unique drinking adventure. There are 4 stops at local establishments – which includes generous beer samples combined with small plates of food. A souvenir photo is also included. There is a charge for this tour.

2) Spend part of a day at the famous Indianapolis Zoo.

You will find up to 3,800 animals of more than 320 species at his most remarkable place. If so inclined, you will be able to feed a flamingo or even a giraffe. There is also a White River Junction Train Ride available for your enjoyment. There is an admission charge.

3) Tour the Eiteljorg Museum of Western Indians & Art.

This museum houses one of the finest collections of Native contemporary art in the world. There is an admissions charge. In the event you get hungry during your visit, there is a cozy Sky City Café with offers Southwestern style food.
