

Honorary Proclamation

ILLINOIS
GOVERNOR

U.S. RADAR SITES OF KILLARY PETERSON DITE

May 11 - 15, 2005

WHEREAS the warriors of the U.S. Radar Sites of Illinois have served our nation in the noble service of nuclear warfare during several their support to direct, monitor, and help in our country's military force 1941 to the present day; and

WHEREAS these brave individuals played a pivotal role in deterring Soviet attack of our country during the Cold War, thus helping to ensure the safety of our great nation; and

WHEREAS the U.S. Radar Sites of Illinois remained and helped to maintain over 1,000 brave America's - men, women and other U.S. people their commitment; and

WHEREAS the State of Illinois honors the warriors of the U.S. Radar Sites of Illinois for their role in protecting our land and nation during one of the most important chapters in United States history;

Now Therefore, I, Rod Blagojevich, Governor of the State of Illinois, do hereby proclaim May 11 - 15, 2005:

U.S. RADAR SITES OF KILLARY PETERSON DITE

in the State of Illinois.

GIVEN under my hand and the Famous Seal of the State of Illinois, this eleventh day of May,
2005.

Rod Blagojevich
Rod Blagojevich
Governor