Cut or Print out the SIGN-UP SHEET on the next page:

Other things to see and do in Montgomery:

The city has a lot to offer, especially if you arrive before or stay after the reunion. These sites could be visited before, after (or even during) the reunion. (You will have to negotiate the hotel rate if arriving more than one day before or after the reunion dates.)

Below are just 3 of many examples:

1) Take in a Double AA professional Baseball game at beautiful Riverwalk Stadium and watch the Montgomery Biscuits take on the Chattanooga Lookouts team. They will be playing at home at 6:35 PM on the evenings of 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, and 10 Sept. General admission is only $9, and box seats run $11.

2) Tour the grounds of the Alabama Shakespeare Theater complex and grounds. No plays are scheduled in September as this is their close-down month used to prepare for the 2023-2024 season. However, you can visit the very close, splendid Montgomery Museum of Fine Arts.

3) For those country and western music fans, you can tour the Hank Williams Museum. Inside you'll also find the powder blue Cadillac convertible that Hank died in while en route to a concert date. There is an admission charge of $12.50 per person. However, senior citizen rates are available.
